P. R. R. NET INCOME DROPS $10,000,000 Gross Sales Nearly 20 Per Cent. Greater Than in 1919.

Annual Report Forecasts Further Readjusting of Wages and Operating Expenses.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 28 .- The seventyourth annual report of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, made public to-night, reflects the business depression that has been felt in many lines of in-that has been felt in many lines of industry in recent months. President Rea, specking of rate and wage increases, says the company, having sustained a heavy decrease in its gross and net revenues, had no recourse but to make a "severe retrenchment in its operating expenses." "It is hoped," he says, "that the readjustment period will be short lived, but of that no assurance can be given, because it is not restricted to the United States."

The report refers to the action of the railroads in asking the discontinuance of the national agreements and working conditions of the war period and says:

"It is hoped by such action non-employment and wage reductions will be restricted to reasonable limits, but in view of the extent of the recession of traffic and in the output of the industries with the wage reductions that have been brought about in other lines of activity it is hard to see how railroad wages can be continued at the standard scale established to meet war conditions."

"The railroads of the country," the re-

"The railroads of the country," the report also says, "are considerably embarrassed by the long delay in effecting settlement with the Government for the Federal control and guarantee periods, which deprives them of much needed funds to meet current expenses and reduce their floating debt."

The net income for 1920 was $32,501,-573, a decrease compared with 1919 of

The net income for 1920 was $32,801,673, a decrease compared with 1919 of $10,066,425. Of the 1920 net income $29,350,404 was applied to the 6 percent dividends of the company, $2,233,799 to sinking and other reserve funds and $611,479 to profit and loss. The report adds that until final settlements are effected with the Government some of the items appearing in the income statement and general balance sheet are necessarily estimated.

Under the head of "operating results" for 1920 the report shows the following:
Railway operating revenues, $566,550,758, increase compared with 1219 of $477,589,813.

Railway operating expenses, $589,-

WHITE MOTORS PROFIT $4.82 A SHARE IN 1920

preceding year in the volume of business done by the White Motor Company preceding year in the volume of business done by the White Motor Company the net for the year showed a substantial increase over 1915 in point of sales. That was disclosed yesterday when the annual report of Windsor T. White, president, showed gross sales to have ben $51,998,122, an increase of 19.8 per cent. over 1915.

Net profits available for dividends after all charges and Federal taxes amounted to $2,410,014, equivalent to $4.82 a share, earned on the 500,000 shares of capital stock of $50 par value.

Operating profit after deducting manufacturing, selling, service and administrative expenses, but before providing for reduction of inventories, was $3,486.704, and $1,193,927 was written off to bring inventory value down to the current market. Discount on purchases, interest and other miscellaneous income totalled $483,388; $72,111 was realized from a sale of branch buildings, while $51,266 was lost on the sale of Government securities, leaving the profit before taxes, but after interest, $2,710,014. For Federal taxes $300,000 was set aside and $2,000,000 was paid in dividends, making the final surplus for 1920 $410,014 and the total profit and loss surplus at the end of the year $5,472,211.

Rapid Liquidation of Inventory Considered a Factor.

Edsel Ford, who has been convalescing at Pinehurst from the effects of a surgical operation, is scheduled to return this morning to Detroit, and the resumption of conversations relative to the much discussed Ford loan in the near future would cause no surprise among was financiers.

Heney Ford continues to express the opinion that he can get along without Wall Street, but it is suggested here that liquidation of inventory between this date and April 1 will have to be extraordinarily rapid to obviate the necessity of a loan. In some quarters it is believed that as much as $60,000,000 of inventory will have to be disposed of in that period and doubt is expressed as to the ability of the automobile and tractor market to absorb that amount in so short a period.

Should the motor manufacturer come to Wall Street for the loan, the price no doubt would be as favorable as it was when negotiations were first invitated but it is possible that conditions was when negotiations were first in-litated, but it is possible that conditions and limitations would be altered in the case of fresh negotiations.

Seventeen Months. The United Retail Stores Candy Stores, which made public yesterday an income account for the first seventeen months of operation, covering the period ended December 21, 1920, not only failed to make a profit but reported a lose, after deduction of depreciation and tax reserves, of $3.23.729, which wiped out all but $16.87. of the previous surplus of $350,600. Loss from operations amounted to $20.227 and $313.452 was amounted for depreciation, and tax re-

George Wattley, treasurer, In his report to stockholders, said that the company now has a chain of twenty-five stores, including the Fuerst & Kraemer pany now has a chain of twenty atores, including the Fuerst & Kraemer chain in New Orleans. Other leases have been secured, he said, and additional stores will be opened as fast as suitable locations and reasonable rentals can be secured. He estimated sales for 1921 in the stores now open at between $4,000,000 and $5,000,000.

FUNDAMENTAL RESOURCES

America is endowed by nature with many soils, and many resources. She is fundamentally sound in her institutions and firmly entrenched in her possession of the basic essentials of life and happiness. From her mountains and plains, her forests and seacoasts, spring those things that are needed by the world.

Prosperity, like the tide, rises and ebbs, but the wealth of this country is the wealth that endures and cannot be long depreciated by surface influences. This bank has dealt for 65 years with those engaged in developing the fundamental resources of the nation, and has confidence in the strength of the land and the enterprise of her people.
